

Fun Facts from the 2007 Economic Census

Manufacturing

U.S. manufacturers produced nearly 849 million pounds of peanut butter in consumer sizes in 2007, with a value of shipments of $850.3 Million. Another $114.5 Million was produced in commercial sizes and bulk, for a total of $964.8 Million.

Tax Status

21,520 of the 75,112 child day care services businesses in the U.S. in 2007 (29%) were exempt from federal income tax, but these tax-exempt businesses made up 40% of the revenue and 37% of the employment in this industry.

Business Size

Although there were more grocery stores with annual sales between $1 and $2.5 Million (12,535), grocery stores with between $5 and $10 Million reported the highest total sales ($51.4 Billion).

Legal Form of Organization

48,112 of the 81,632 beauty salons in the U.S. in 2007 (59%) were owned by corporations, while 24,367 (30%) were individual proprietorships and 9,146 (11%) were partnerships.

YOUR RESPONSE MAKES A DIFFERENCE

Learn more about the 2012 Economic Census

Franchising

30,130 of the 220,089 full-service restaurants in the U.S. in 2007 were franchises (14%), but 124,898 of the 211,313 limited-service restaurants in the U.S. in 2007 were franchises (59%).

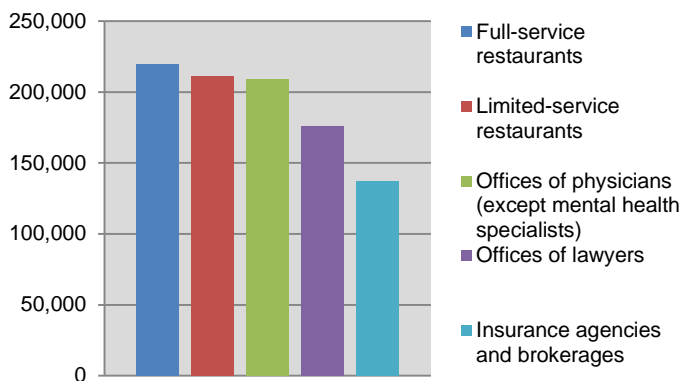

Class of Customer

Only 19% of the sales of paint and wallpaper stores in 2007 were to household consumers and individual users, but 63% were sold to building contractors, heavy construction, and special trade contractors.

Top Employer

The industry with the most employees in the US in 2007 was General Medical and Surgical Hospitals (NAICS 622110) with 5,077,619 employees. Full-Service Restaurants (NAICS 722110) was 2nd with 4,603,747.

Most Businesses

The industry with the most businesses in the U.S. in 2007 was Full-Service Restaurants (NAICS 722110) with 220,089. Limited-Service Restaurants (722211) was 2nd with 211,313.

Highest Payroll per Employee

The industry with the highest average payroll per employee in the US in 2007 was Investment Banking and Securities Dealing (NAICS 523110) with $377,579.

YOUR RESPONSE MAKES A DIFFERENCE

Learn more about the 2012 Economic Census